Wild Mountain Animals—The Stenzel Fur company on lower Main is exhibiting a number of live animals which are attracting a great deal of attention. In the list are an armadillo, or anteater, a wild bear, a guinea pig, a rattlesnake seven feet long, with several coons and wild cats.

Mammas Held—Judge Whitaker of the civil division of the city court, yesterday held J. Mammas, one of the Greek rioters at Garfield, to the district court in bonds of $1500. Linenman Injured—William Hudson, aged about 30 years, an employee of the Street Railway company, is at the L. D. Hudson grasped a live wire and the shock was so powerful he was thrown to the ground.

Daughters of the Pioneers—There will be a business meeting of the Daughters of the Pioneers at the Lion house, Monday, July 2, at 4 o'clock p. m. The telephone line is being put in by the contractor, E. A. Hess of Clifton, Iowa, and supplies are daily arriving on the ground. On Aug. 30 bids will be opened for the construction of the 19,000 foot tunnel to connect Diamond Creek canyon with Strawberry valley.

Larsen Still Missing—Search is still being instituted for Carl Larsen, the miner whose disappearance was noted in the "News" a few days ago. Friends of the man are much concerned over the failure to find the missing man, and fear that he has perished in the hills in the region of Dagway mountain. Deep Creek mining district. He went to bring a number of horses into camp and since that time no trace of him has been found. He is described as being about 5 feet 4 inches in height; light hair and mustache, and when last seen wore blue overalls and jumper.
